

WORD FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

GREETINGS, GHSA SWIMMING & DIVING PARTICIPANTS AND FANS!

Welcome to one of the largest events on the GHSA calendar, the 2017 GHSA Swimming and Diving State Championships. Thank you for your attendance and participation at this very competitive event. There have been remarkable performances throughout this season, and it is expected that many of those efforts will be surpassed over the next few days.

We want to thank the large number of people who have worked so hard all season processing the data that drives competitive swimming and diving. Thanks go out to the staff at Georgia Tech and the volunteers who keep the state meet running so efficiently. Special thanks to Franke Marsden (Capital City Sports) and Matt Murphy (Atlanta Swimming) for all they do to strengthen Georgia's swim programs. We commend Andy Cowart, GHSA Coordinator for Swimming and Diving, for his leadership.

It is our hope that you will enjoy your event experience. Please notice the display of our corporate partners that support the GHSA put on quality championships. If you have the opportunity to support these groups, please do so. Good luck to all the student athletes competing this weekend.

Sincerely,
Andy Cowart

SWIMMING FINALS

STATE RECORDS, TITLE DEFENSES AND INDIVIDUAL DOMINANCE UP FOR GRABS AT STATE MEET

BY CRAIG SAGER II | CSAGER@SCOREATL.COM

100 meter free style (52.34).

Pace Academy added top finishes in the 200 and the 500 girls' freestyle as Grace Ferry hit the wall first with times of 1:49.42 and 4:53.10, respectively. Ferry has since moved on to Penn University to swim and after an incredible four-year run with the Knights leaves them with a big vacancy to fill.

The Westminster boys (362.5) easily held off second place St. Pius (256.5) and third place Chamblee (256) to clinch a second straight GHSA Class A-AAAAA swimming state title last year. Westminster's Owen Downs, Princeton's Derek Cox, Columbia's Erik Cox and Joseph Rodriguez won the 200-medy relay, while breaking the one-day old state record from preliminaries with a new Georgia-best 1:32.30. The Wildcats were outswam by St. Pius, Calhoun and Chamblee in the 200-medy relay qualifying and it will be Downs leading the Wildcats against a deep cast of state qualifiers sporting St. Pius and Chamblee colors.

Savannah County Day's Brennan Pastorek enters the state meet with the top boys qualifying times in the 200 individual medley, the 100 meter breaststroke, the 100 meter freestyle and the 50 meter freestyle. He topped the field by more than four seconds with a 1:52.34 finish in the 200 IM and was the only qualifier to clock a time faster than 21 seconds (20.93) in any of the classifications. His 100 meter freestyle was also the fastest qualifying time in the state (45.97), while his 56.79 in the 100 meter breast stroke was topped by Peachtree Ridge's Jonathan Yang (55.75) and Collins Hill's Andrew Winton (56.09) in what will be a must-see showdown in Class AAAAAA-AAAAA.

Oconee County's Danielle Della Torre enters the state meet with the top qualifying time in the 200 individual medley (2:05.08) and the
